

'Okay okay!...another song about a relationship gone sour...shit happens. All Instruments and Vocals by WZ'

SCREAM

There's nothing left to lose
When two hearts are gambled away
When love becomes annoying
And truth means aching words you didn't say

The die is cast
If resignation rules
Sadness troubles our minds
Wretched twosome called 'burnt-out-fools'

Spinning around in circles- We allow our feelings to melt away
Sobering thoughts put out that blaze- blur every color of my day

It's not enough
If we find no spark of love in a moment
It's not enough
If we don't care about each others dreams
It's far too much
If 1000 words have wounded my soul –my dear
And every unsaid word is getting louder than a scream

Smiling YOU is putting me down
Seems so hard for me to breath
Full attention on your side
There's nothing –no nothing left for me

Spinning around in circles- We allow our feelings to melt away
Sobering thoughts put out that blaze- blur every color of my day

It's not enough
If we find no spark of love in a moment
It's not enough
If we don't care about each others dreams
It's far too much
If 1000 words have wounded my soul –my dear
And every unsaid word is getting louder than a scream- No!

Spinning around in circles- We allow our feelings to melt away
Sobering thoughts put out that blaze- blur every color of my day

It's not enough
If we find no spark of love in a moment
It's not enough
If we don't care about each others dreams
It's far too much
If 1000 words have wounded my soul –my dear
And every unsaid word is getting louder than a scream
